

TOMMY HICKS END TIME VISION

(occurred 3 times on July 25, 1961)

I suddenly found myself at a great height. As I looked down upon the earth, suddenly the whole world came into view, every nation came before my sight. The east and west, north and south; and I recognized every country, and many cities I'd been in, and I was almost in fear and trembling as I stood beholding the great sight before me. At that moment there began lightning and thunder. As the lightning flashed over the face of the earth, my eyes went downward and I was facing the north. Suddenly I saw what looked like a great giant and I stared and looked at it, bewildered by the sight. It was so gigantic, so great in stature, his feet seemed to reach the north pole, and his head to the south. Its arms stretched from sea to sea. As I watched, I saw this great giant struggling for life. His body was covered with debris from head to foot and at times this giant moved its body, and acted as though it would get up at times. And when it did, thousands of hideous little creatures seemed to run away from this giant and when he'd become calm, they'd come back.

All of a sudden, this giant lifted his hand towards the heavens and then its other hand. When it did, these creatures by the thousands fled from this giant, and go into the darkness. Slowly this giant began to rise and as he did, his head and hands went into the clouds. As he arose to his feet he seemed to have cleansed himself from the debris and filth that was on him, and he began to raise his hands to the heavens as though praising the Lord. As he raised his hands it was even to the clouds. Suddenly, every cloud became silver, the most beautiful silver I've ever known. As I watched the phenomena, it was so great, I couldn't begin to understand what it all meant. I was so stirred as I watched. I cried to the Lord, and said "Oh Lord, what's the meaning of this?" And it felt as if I was actually in the Spirit, and could feel the presence of the Lord, even as I was asleep.

From those clouds, suddenly great drops of liquid light began to rain down on this mighty giant. Slowly, the giant began to melt and began to sink as it were into the very earth itself. As he melted his whole form seemed to have melted on the face of the earth. And this great rain began to come down, liquid drops of light began to flood the very earth itself. As I watched the giant who seemed to melt, suddenly it became millions of people over the face of the earth. As I beheld this sight I saw people stood up all over the world lifting up their hands, and praising the Lord.

At that very moment, there came a great thunder that seemed to roar from the heavens, a voice as a roaring lion. I turned my eyes toward heaven, and suddenly I saw a figure in glistening white, the most glorious thing I've ever seen in all my life. I didn't see the face, but somehow I knew it was the Lord Jesus Christ. He stretched His hand and as He did. He'd stretch it forth to one and to another and to another and He stretched forth His hand upon the peoples and nations of the world, men and women. As He pointed towards them, this liquid light seemed to flow from His hand into them, and a mighty anointing of God came upon them. And they began to go forth in the Name of the Lord.

As I watched at this great height, where I was I do not know. I only know that I beheld the whole world. I watched these people as they went to-and-fro over the face of the earth. Suddenly here was a man in Africa, and in a moment he was transported in the Spirit of God, to some other place. All over the world they went. They came through fire, pestilence, famine and persecution - nothing seemed to stop them. Angry mobs came to them with swords and guns, and like Jesus, they passed through the multitude and they couldn't find them. But they went forth in the Name of the Lord-and everywhere they stretched forth their hand, the sick were healed, and blind eyes were opened. There was not a long prayer. As they marched forward, everything they did was as the ministry of Christ in the end-time. They were ministering to multitudes over the face of earth. Tens of thousands, even millions came to the Lord Jesus Christ. As these people stood and gave the message of the kingdom, the coming kingdom - in this last hour, it was so glorious.

It seemed some rebelled. They'd become angry and tried to attack these workers giving the message in this end-time. But nothing could hinder it. God is going to have a people. God is going to give to the world a demonstration in this last hour such as the world has never known before. These men and women are of all walks of life. When one would seem to stumble and fall another would come and pick them up. There were no big 'I' and little 'you' But every mountain was brought low and every valley was exalted, and they seemed to have one thing in common - there was a divine love that seemed to flow from these people as they went together, worked together, and lived together - it was the most glorious thing that I've ever known. Jesus Christ was the theme of their life. Does He mean everything to you? As I beheld this sight, I could only cry - and sometimes I laughed - it was so wonderful, as they went throughout the whole earth.

As I watched from heaven, there were times when there were great deluges of this liquid light seemed to fall upon great congregations. And they would lift up their hands and praise God for hours and even days, as the Spirit of God came upon them. God said, 'I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh.' And that is exactly what God was doing. To every man and woman who received this power and anointing, flowed the miracles of God. As they were going about the face of the earth, a great persecution seemed to come from every end of the earth. Suddenly there was another great, loud clap of thunder, that seemed to resound around the world. And I heard again the Voice saying, 'Now this is My people, this is My beloved bride.'

When the voice spoke, I looked upon the earth, and I could see the lakes and mountains. The graves were opened, and people from all over the world, the saints of all ages seemed to be rising. I noticed many from Korea. As they rose from the graves - suddenly all these people came from every direction - from the east and west, north and south, and they seemed to be forming again this gigantic body. As the dead in Christ seemed to be rising first, I could hardly comprehend it - it was so marvelous, it was so far beyond anything I could ever dream or think. But, as this body suddenly began to form, it took shape again in the form of this mighty giant. But this time it was different. It was arrayed in the most beautiful, gorgeous white, it's garments were without spot or wrinkle. The people of all ages seemed to be gathering into this body. And slowly, slowly, as it began to form up into the very heavens, suddenly from the heavens above, the Lord Jesus came and became the Head. And I heard another clap of thunder, that said, 'This is My beloved for whom I have waited. She will come forth, even tried by fire. This is she that I've loved from the beginning of time.'

As I watched, my eyes suddenly turned to the north, and I saw seeming destruction. Men and women in anguish crying out and buildings in destruction. Then I heard again the Voice, saying, "Now is My wrath being poured out on the face of the earth." From the ends of the whole world, the wrath of God seemed to be poured out on the face of the earth. I can remember it as though it happened a moment ago. I shook and trembled as I beheld the awful sight of seeing cities and whole nations going down in destruction. I could hear the weeping and wailing. They seemed to cry as they went into caves, but the caves and mountains opened up. They leaped into water, but the water wouldn't drown them. Seemingly nothing could destroy them. They wanted to take their life, but couldn't. Then again, I turned my eyes to the glorious sight, this body arrayed in a beautiful white shining, garment. Slowly, it began to lift from the earth. As it did, I awoke.

The sight I beheld in the vision was the end-time ministry. I realized that we're living in the end-times, and all over the world God is anointing men and women with this ministry of Jesus Christ. They'll give forth the Word of the Lord, and say (I heard it many times in the vision) "According to my word, it shall be done." Clothed with the power and anointing of the living God, fearing no man, they go in the name of the Lord of Hosts. This is the glorious miracle of it: they would stretch forth their hand exactly as the Lord did. There was this liquid fire that seemed to be in their hand. As they stretched forth their hand, they said: "According to my word, be made whole." I saw people go into insane institutions to heal. This is all in the vision God gave me. As they continued in this mighty end-time ministry, I looked to the Lord and said, "What's the meaning of this?" He said "This is what I'll do in the last days. I'll restore all that the locusts have destroyed. My people in the end-time shall go forth, as a mighty army they shall sweep over the face of the earth."

I beheld this Christ. He continued to stretch forth His hand. But there was a tragedy. Many people, as He stretched forth His hands, refused the anointing and call of God. I saw many women that I knew, people that I felt would certainly receive the call. But as He stretched forth His hands, they simply bowed their heads and began to back away. And each of these then seemed to go into darkness. Blackness seemed to swallow them everywhere. I was bewildered as I watched. But the people that He had anointed, hundreds and thousands all over the world, in Africa, Asia, Russia, China, and America, the anointing was on all these as they went forth in the name of the Lord. I saw these men and women as they went forth. They were all kinds, rich and poor. I saw people bound with paralysis, sickness and blindness. As the Lord gave them this anointing they became well and went forth.
