

Ratana's Foundation of Faith Written Down Before He Died

May all the earth be covered with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters of the sea cover the ocean bed. Only through strength and firmness in prayer shall evil and good be distinguished. Behold, I now pause and assemble the good and the evil, retaining the good for my own use and casting aside that which is evil so that the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ may have free course.

Oh Jehovah, the Father, the Son and Holy Ghost, and the Faithful Angels, the flesh is worn thin where it encases my soul . . . Of a truth the Lord my Savior Jesus Christ lives.

Reverent worship of Jehovah was the genesis of my effort that the Pa (tribal village) might be a reflection of the House of Israel and that all those therein might not be contaminated by materialism, clever sophistries, or the devil. O Jehovah the Father, O the Lord Jesus Christ, the tree has grown of which I sowed the seed to the four winds. We beseech Thee come, govern the whole of it that it may bear good fruit for the salvation of both the body and the soul.

I now sign my name to this statement to enlighten the rising generation and the survivors in general concerning the foundation toward truth that I have chosen so that they might possess the blessings in the love of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Amen.
